Southern Fried Catfish

Our farm fresh catfish is from the coastal plains of North Carolina. Hand-breaded with locally-milled cornmeal, our catfish fillets are fried to perfection. Served with a house-made lemon tartar sauce with North Carolina dill pickle relish and nestled in a buttery Brioche bun, our Southern Fried Catfish sandwich is truly local.

BBQ Bruiser

Local pulled pork BBQ from Greensboro, NC, is topped with a tangy sauce, piled high with crispy griddle-cooked bacon, American cheese and house-made Carolina Cole Slaw. We don't call it the Bruiser for nothin'.

The fresh, scratch-made food you've come to love is about to get even better. Enjoy our new, Southern Inspired sandwiches, snacks and sides.
